

THE BIG LIE: (One law Churches unknowing breaks.)

The great principles of God's law are embodied in the Ten Commandments and exemplified in the life of Christ. They express God's love, will, and purposes concerning human conduct and relationships and are binding upon all people in every ages. These precepts are the basis of God's covenant with His people and the standard in God's judgment.

Satan counterfeits the things of God in order to make himself appear to be like God. What is commonly referred to as the "unholy trinity," described vividly in Revelation 12 and 13, is no exception? The unholy trinity is Satan, the Antichrist, and the False Prophet. The unholy trinity portrays the traits of deception, hatred, and unadulterated evil. For centuries, the ability to identify the Beast and the false prophet who are mentioned in the Books of Daniel and the Revelation has eluded Bible scholars. Now, as the end of this age approaches and Christ's return draws near, many answers concerning the prophetic Beast of Revelation and the False Prophet being revealed.

An understanding of the books of Daniel and Revelation is important because they were recorded for those living in the tumultuous time just before the return of Jesus Christ. If indeed this is the prophetic time spoken of in these two books, an understanding of these prophecies is literally a matter of life or death. Paul observed, "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in heavenly places" (Ephesians. 6:12).

Christians who know the truth, know it is important to teach God's Word truthfully! Most who call themselves Christian, do not know and understand the truth of God's word. An understanding of the books of Daniel and Revelation is important because they were recorded for those living in the tumultuous time just before the return of Jesus Christ. "And the angel said to Daniel, Go your way Daniel: for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. Many shall be purified, and made white and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand" (Daniel;.12:9-10). When studying God's word, it is important to remember that the symbolism recorded in these prophecies pertains to both the physical and spiritual dimensions of existence.

There is no doubt that the prophecies contained in the books of Daniel and Revelation are extremely difficult to understand. However, God has promised an understanding of these prophecies to those whom He will call to become His followers just before Christ's return. Does this mean that every single person who is called to salvation during the gospel age will have a complete understanding of prophecy? No, it does not mean this.

What God has promised is that everyone He calls to salvation during the end of the age will have the amount of understanding necessary for their spiritual needs. However, each individual must do the things that God requires in order to have this understanding. See Ephesians.1:16-18; 2nd.Timothy.3:16; James. 1:15; Revelation. 13:8; 17:8. Therefore, in order to prepare yourselves for the events ahead, each individual who is called should make a diligent effort to study and understand what God has caused to be written for their benefit II Timothy 2:15.

The beneficent Creator, after the six days of Creation, rested on the seventh day and instituted the Sabbath for all people as a memorial of Creation. and The fourth commandment of God's unchangeable law requires the observance of this seventh-day Sabbath as the day of rest, worship, and ministry in harmony with the teaching and practice of Jesus, the Lord of the Sabbath. The Sabbath is a day of delightful communion with God and one another. It is a symbol of our redemption in Christ, a sign, seal or mark of our sanctification, a token of our allegiance, and a foretaste of our eternal future in God's kingdom. The Sabbath is God's perpetual sign, seal or mark of His eternal covenant between Him and His people. Joyful observance of this holy time from evening to evening, sunset to sunset, is a celebration of God's creative and redemptive acts. It is important for us to do the will of God, Christians know how Satan counterfeit God's work to be like Him. That is why you have two Sabbaths. One for God (7th Day Saturday) and one for Satan (Sunday) instituted by the Catholic Church. ☞ Xulon Press
